DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is responsive to the amendment filed application filed 08/22/2006.

Claims 22-36 are currently pending in this application. Claim 1 has been amended.

Claims 27-36 have been added.

Specification

2. The cross reference related to the application cited in the specification must be updated (i.e., update the relevant status, with PTO serial numbers or patent numbers where appropriate, on the Preliminary Amendment filed 09/12/03, page 1). Correction is required.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 23, 24, 28, 29, 33, and 34 are objected to because of the following informalities: the abbreviations used in these claims should be defined. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 22-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims are directed to a signal directly or indirectly by claiming a medium and the Specification recites evidence where the computer readable medium is define as "a transmission-type media such as digital and analog communications links". In that event, the claims are directed to a form of energy which at present the office feels does not fall into a category of invention.

Claims which are broad enough to read on statutory subject matter or on non-statutory subject matter are considered non-statutory. Cf. In re Lintner, 458 F.2d 1013, 1015, 173 USPQ 560, 562 (CCPA 1972) ("Claims which are broad enough to read on obvious subject matter are unpatentable even though they also read on nonobvious subject matter.") During prosecution, applicant can amend to limit the claims to statutory subject matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 22-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bodin et al (U.S. 5,418,962). The reference was provided by Applicant in the IDS filed 09/12/2003.

As to claim 22:

Bodin teaches the invention as claimed including a device driver, in a computer readable medium, suitable for communication with a plurality of different types of devices, wherein each of the plurality of different types of devices conform to a common standard (see the discussion beginning at col.2, line 24), the device driver comprising:

- identification means for identifying all input/output ports relating to a basic device type common to the plurality of different types of devices (see col.2, lines 41-68 and col. 4, line 56-col.5, line 10);
- interrogation means using commands conforming to the standard and common to the plurality of different types of devices for polling a device within the plurality of different types of devices to obtain input/output ports used by the device in addition to the input/output ports identified by the identification means (see col.2, lines 41-68 and col. 4, line 56-col.5, line 10); and

- trapping means for trapping input/output ports identified by the identification means and the interrogation means (see the discussion beginning at col.4, line 6).

As to claim 23:

Bodin teaches the device includes a PCI BIOS and wherein the commands conforming to the standard used in the interrogation means are PCI standard BIOS calls (see the discussion beginning at col.3, line 64).

As to claim 24:

Bodin teaches the device is a video adapter and the basic device type is an abstract SVGA including a standard VGA and additional non-standard VGA input/output ports used by the basic device type (see col.2, lines 41-68 and col.4, line 6-col.5, line 10).

As to claim 25:

Bodin teaches additional input/output ports used by the basic device type are identifiable during installation of the device by a user option (see col.2, lines 41-68 and col. 4, line 56-col.5, line 10).

As to claim 26:

Bodin teaches additional input/output ports used by the basic device type are identifiable during installation by the device as removed from the basic device type and unused by the device through a user option (see col.4, line 56-col.5, line 57).

As to claims 27-31:

Refer to claims 22-26, respectively, for rejections.

As to claims 32-36:

Refer to claims 22-26, respectively, for rejections.
